

Admission regulations for the 1st year at Troens Bevis Bible and Missions Institute

Referring to "Voksenopplæringsloven" Ch.4

1. Applications for Troens Bevis Bible and Missions Institute are processed and the final decision is made by the director, or the one who the director gives authority to do this.
2. Active Christian ministry is required due to the school's practical profile and values of the practice places of the school. Active Christian ministry means that the applicant can document that he/she has had leader responsibilities or practical tasks in a Christian church/organization during the last 3 years. Another condition for admission is that the applicant is turning 18 years old during the admission year.
3. The school has continuous intake until first the school day. If there are still available spots in the school by then, the intake will continue until September 24th during the year of the intake.
4. The school accepts applicants from all countries except nationals in need of student visa from countries listed in the orange or red group in the UDI's guidelines for Visa practice (see the following links: orange group, red group). Maximum 10 percent of the school's accepted number, which means 11 people, can be citizens from countries outside the EEA. This limit is only for citizens that have a residence permit for studies. Students outside the EEA area that apply for a study visa, should be able to show an approved visa/residence card before the 30th of May. If this cannot be shown within the deadline, other applicants on the waiting list may be prioritized (see point 5).
5. When 10% of the school spots are filled up from applicants outside the EEA (see point 4) the following considerations will determine the order of the waiting list:
 1. The applicant lives in Norway
 2. The applicant is younger than 26 years old
 3. The time of the application
6. The teaching at TBBMI is given in Norwegian and English. 50% of the teaching is only done in English, the rest is translated between Norwegian and English. The students must have satisfactory English competence in order to follow the teaching. The applicants may therefore be asked to prove this through a Skype conversation with the office.
7. An admission fee of 1000 NOK must be paid within 14 days after the student has been accepted as a student at TBBMI. This fee is non-refundable.
8. The applicant / student must meet the first day of school in order to receive his or her place unless something else is agreed.
9. Decisions on admission are individual decisions, cf. "Forvaltningsloven" Act § 2, first paragraph point b. The applicant has the right to appeal and have right of access to the case document cf. "Forvaltningsloven" Sec. IV-VI. The appeal can be directed to the Directorate.
